B. The person so nominated shall either be a resident of the State of Wisconsin or a person who has substantial ties to Wisconsin and sport, and in each instance, who has made a contribution to sport in the State of Wisconsin or elsewhere. In judging a person's contribution, such contribution shall be judged not only during their primary career, but their contribution to sport subsequent thereto.

Please offer a statement about the nominee. Tell us why you feel he or she is an outstanding person who deserves the honor of induction into the Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame.

If the nominee is living, please provide information on what they are doing now.

Process:

Induction into the Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame occurs every two years. Potential inductees are sought from the public during a specified period. Upon conclusion of the 'nomination period' nominees are presented to the Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame Committee. The Committee then recommends the class to the board of the Wisconsin Sports Development Corporation for their approval.
